

Dear EPC Membership –

Next Monday's luncheon meeting will be our final Speaker Series event of the EPC's fiscal year. This is a very special finale for us!

Please note – you will need to arrive by 11:30am for the EARLY START of Part 1. Stay for Part 2, or arrive at 12:30pm for Part 2 only. (See detailed schedule below).

It is our privilege to welcome the renowned Martin M. Shenkman to our MAC Downtown stage for his dual presentation on two “evergreen” estate planning topics that will always remain relevant to a certain portion of your client roster: Planning for Clients with Chronic Illness and Disability and Religious Considerations of Estate Planning. Upon hearing Marty speak, you will immediately recognize his unique capability in delivering valuable insights and masterful techniques that will amplify your professional ability to help meet your clients' needs. Marty is an acclaimed estate planning attorney who has devoted his life and energy to helping people – both personally and professionally. He is an exceptional speaker, and one of my personal favorites. You do not want to miss him!

Register now! To register for this session, go to www.epcstlouis.org and click the link for the session. In Person registration is available through midnight on Thursday; Zoom registration is available through midnight on Sunday.

Robynn D. Ragland
President, Estate Planning Council of St. Louis

Detailed Schedule:

11:35am – 12:35pm – Part 1: Planning for Clients with Chronic Illness and Disability

12:45pm – 1:45pm – Part 2: Religious Considerations of Estate Planning